Reasons for Increased Clients

1. Current families sharing the news that OCR is a resource for food and utility assistance.
2. Individuals seeing their hours cut leaving them with less money to feed their families or pay rent and utilities.
3. Health problems—individuals with chronic health issues or a family member having a health crisis.
4. Senior adults living on Social Security or Disability as their only source of income.
5. Homelessness—OCR has assisted a handful of individuals and couples who are living out of their vehicles.

Working To Address Unmet Needs

- OCR works with First United Methodist Church as it holds Bridges Out of Poverty classes two to three times a year.
- OCR refers clients to Youth Services of Tulsa and Family and Children's Services counselors.
- OCR also refers clients to Aruba Clinic in Collinsville for free health exams and medicine.
- OCR refers clients to Life Church Owasso that need financial counseling (Life Church has a team of certified financial counselors for budgeting).
- OCR is very interested in how to address the homeless population in Owasso. It is minimal at the present but OCR has assisted upwards of 10 individuals who declared themselves as homeless.
- OCR participated in the recent update of community needs assessment conducted by St. John's Owasso Hospital.
- OCR met with the director of Emergency Infant Services about a potential partnership with them to provide infants with a variety of services.
- OCR connected with #Happy Period that provides feminine hygiene products to non-profits like OCR. Because of the ongoing partnership, OCR has been able to provide clients with essential products.
